Twenty-first special session

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL

2194 (S-XXI). Arrangements for the dispatch of a visiting mission to observe current conditions in Palau, Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands

The Trusteeship Council,

Recalling Security Council resolution 683 (1990) of 22 December 1990, in which the Council determined, in the light of the entry into force of the new status agreements for the Federated States of Micronesia, the Marshall Islands and the Northern Mariana Islands, that the objectives of the Trusteeship Agreement 1/ had been fully attained, and that the applicability of the Trusteeship Agreement had terminated, with respect to those entities,

Having been invited by the Administering Authority to dispatch a mission to observe current conditions in Palau,

Considering that it would be desirable to include in such a mission representatives of countries of the region that are not members of the Trusteeship Council,

1. Decides to dispatch a visiting mission to Palau, Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, in March 1992, for approximately two weeks to observe current conditions in the Territory;

1/ Trusteeship Agreement for the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands (United Nations publication, Sales No. 1957.VI.A.1).

2. Further decides that the Visiting Mission to Palau should be composed of four members of the Trusteeship Council - China, France, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland - and two representatives of countries of the region that are not members of the Council, to be determined through further consultations; 2/

3. Directs the Visiting Mission to obtain firsthand information concerning political, economic and social developments in Palau;

4. Directs the Visiting Mission to receive petitions, without prejudice to its action in accordance with the rules of procedure of the Trusteeship Council, and to examine on the spot such of the petitions as, in its opinion, warrant special examination;

5. Requests the Visiting Mission to submit to the Trusteeship Council as soon as practicable a report on its visit containing its findings, with such observations, conclusions and recommendations as it may wish to make;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the necessary staff and facilities to assist the Visiting Mission in the performance of its functions.

1690th meeting
19 December 1991

2/ At its 1690th meeting, on 19 December 1991, the Council decided that the nominations to be submitted would automatically be approved when received.
